DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on July 24, 2006 has been entered.

Status

1. Claims 1, 2, 4-10, 14, 17, 28-52 are pending.

Claims 1, 2, 4-10, 14, 17; 28-52 are rejected.

Any rejection which is not reiterated in this action is hereby withdrawn as no longer applicable.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

3. Claims 1, 2, 4-10, 14, 17, 28-52 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

As MPEP 2163.06 notes " If new matter is added to the claims, the examiner should reject the claims under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph - written description requirement. In re Rasmussen , 650 F.2d 1212, 211 USPQ 323 (CCPA 1981)."

Here, claim 1 incorporates a range of 8 in the comparison of calculated bioagents and this number and new range is apparently new matter. A careful review by the examiner of the cited pages of the specification failed to identify any support for this new limitation. The citation to Figure 14 does not support a comparison to 8, since the listed eight elements are not comparable and the figure shows much more than 8 elements. The eight elements listed include species such as hepatitis A virus and includes genera such as Rhinovirus, which includes dozens if not hundreds of members. So Rhinovirus is not a single "bioagent" as per claim 1. As noted by MPEP 2163.05,

"With respect to changing numerical range limitations, the analysis must take into account which ranges one skilled in the art would consider inherently supported by the discussion in the original disclosure."

In this case, no basis for the range of 8 or more bioagents has been identified in the original disclosure. The disclosure at figure 14 shows at least 25-30 different different results, not 8. This conclusion is consistent with the decision of the Federal Circuit in Eiselstein v. Frank 34 USPQ2d 1467, 1471 (Fed. Cir. 1995), where the Court noted "Moreover, the 10% range of 45-55%, even if it is an approximate "about" 45-55%, is not the same as a very different 10% range, viz. , 50-60%. The limits of these ranges vary from each other by about 10%, which is comparable to the extent of the variation within each range. Eiselstein has therefore not persuaded us that the Board clearly erred in finding that the grandparent application did not provide an adequate written description of the invention comprising 50-60% nickel.” Thus, the Federal Circuit did not permit a range shift where the prior range was disclosed in a way inherently shown in the specification. The change in the current case is greater since there is no support for the specific range chosen whatsoever. Since no basis has been found to support the new claim limitation in the specification, the claim is rejected as incorporating new matter.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The rejection of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Muddiman et al (1997) 69:1543-1549) as evidenced by Muddiman et al (Anal. Chem. (1996) 68:3705-3712) is withdrawn in view of the amendment, which requires a comparison to 8 bioagents.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The rejections of claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are withdrawn in view of all of the limitations added in the amendment and the declaration under 1.132 demonstrating the demonstrated skepticism in the art of experts, specifically the JASONS, which secondary consideration overcomes the obviousness rejection.

Double Patenting

6. The rejection of claims 1-10, 14, 17, 28-44 under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting is withdrawn in view of the terminal disclaimer.

Response to Arguments

7. Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
